September 2010

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 3 YOUTH GROUP MEETING

On Friday, September 3, at 5:00 pm, the Youth Group will meet at Marc Davis' home to plan some activities and have a fun evening. All youth in grades 7 through 12 are welcome to bring their ideas. Let's get together and do something awesome in 2010-11!!

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 5 HYMN SING AND COMMUNION AND COFFEE HOUR

Raise a song of joy to the Lord – or maybe two or three, or would you believe a dozen? On Sunday, September 5, we will celebrate the gift of singing during our worship service. So, be prepared to call out your favorite hymn for us to all join in. "Make a joyful noise to the Lord all the earth; come into his presence with singing." Psalm 100:1-2

We will celebrate Holy Communion during our worship service on September 5, followed by a coffee hour in the Fellowship Hall. Bring a delicious delectable to share and have a relaxing morning with us.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 11 RALLY DAY PRACTICE

CALLING ALL SUNDAY SCHOOL KIDS,
KIDS CHOIR MEMBERS AND YOUTH HELPERS!!!

Rally Day is a day to celebrate our Sunday School program. This year's theme is "Welcome Back to Church and to the Bible". We have some great ideas for worship on Sunday, September 12, but we need your help to make it really work. We need you to take parts in skits and those of you with singing voices are needed to sing some special songs. Meet us at the church at 10:00 am on Saturday, September 11, to pick a place to show your talents and get our Sunday School program off to a great start!!

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 12 RALLY DAY

On September 12, Rally Day will start at 9:00 am with Sunday School. We continue to celebrate during our worship service at 10:30 am with the theme "Welcome Back to Church and to the Bible". Our Sunday School students will be a major part of the worship service. The Kids Choir will make their first appearance for the 2010-11 season by singing several numbers. The Adult Choir will also present their anthem, "Come as a Child". After worship, we will have a covered dish lunch with hot dogs and chicken fingers provided. Then, it's time to play. We can toss bean bags, play kickball, yell "bingo" (if you win) and play lots of other games. If you are really energetic, you can bounce in the Moon Walk. All in all, a great time is planned and we are looking forward to seeing everyone having a good time as we return to our fall routine.

From The Pastor's Desk

Vacation was wonderful – visiting with relatives from both sides of my family. My brother, John, brought catfish from Louisiana and cooked them up for us one night. His wife even brought her special potato salad. Yum-yum! It was especially good to be able to preach where my Papa Dollar and my dad preached many years ago in Alabama. I received a very nice reception especially since most of the congregation had never heard a woman preacher before. There were lots of Dollars in the pews that day but they did not fit into the offering plate. There were eighteen first cousins on the Dollar side at our get togethers. Our one aunt that is remaining is 90 and was present as the family matron.

There were four of us Partridge cousins together in North Carolina. My cousin David had put out the crab pots a couple of days before we arrived so we had plenty of fresh crab meat and shrimp. I shopped and went out on the beach while there. Archie enjoyed pier fishing and going out into the Bogue Sound fishing. I cooked the fish from the Sound trip (Red Drum). They were delicious. Mom taught John and me well. Although we never cooked growing up – we watched. It was her kitchen. Needless to say – we ate too much while we were away.

I know that we have some good voices in our congregation. I am appealing to you to consider joining the choir. We really need you. Tina finished her internship which means her daughter, Sarah, is also no longer with us. Kristi has to finish her last year at Penn State on the main campus which means she can't be with us this year. It only takes one night a week and Sunday morning. Please consider joining us as we sing praises to God. This is a wonderful way to give a gift to support your church. Just try it – we have a good time.

On a somber note – it was really a shock to many people when they heard of the death of Rev. Bob Herrala. When I heard the news I couldn't believe it. I had just been with him the morning before for our prayer meeting. He was only a year older than I am and was planning to retire next summer. At his funeral he was remembered fondly.

The reason I mention this is that it has made me think about what will people will say about me when I am no longer in this world. This comes from Leonard Sweet in his book "A Cup of Coffee at the Soul Café".

"God wants us to be like cathedral art, the stained glass that sheds his light on the world around us. Keith Green, wrote his own version of this in his song, "Stained Glass," taken from Matthew 5:16: "Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

We are like windows
Stained with colors
Of the rainbow
Set in a darkened room
'Til the Bridegroom
Comes to shine Thru.
Then the colors fall around our feet
Over those we meet
Coloring all the gray that we see,
Rainbow colors of assorted hues
Come exchange your blues
For His love that you see shining thru me.

"What spiritual heirlooms are you and I bequeathing to our children, our neighbors, our church, our community, our world? You can't leave anything for posterity if you don't get off your posterior."

Blessings to all of you! Pastor Penny

To everyone who helped make a wonderful time:

THANK YOU!!!! I am so happy to be a part of VBS with you. I love the way you just take care of whatever needs to be done. I must admit that I really rely on you. You make it so easy to be Director. From the first meeting, through decorating, “doing” VBS for the week, and tear down on the last day – it gets easier for me each year because of you.

YOUTH ACHIEVEMENTS

Last month's Youth Achievements listed Eric Rinehimer as making the Honor Roll at Crestwood High School. This was a misprint in the local paper and Eric should have been listed as achieving High Honors – congratulations, Eric.

PICTURE PERFECT

Scenes from the 3rd Annual Country Concert and Motorcycle Ride for Cystic Fibrosis are on the front bulletin board. Pictured are Morgan Hodle checking out Young's Funny Farm duck therapy display and Leah Dietrich with her cousin, Paige Ceaser, in whose honor the event is held. Leah and Paige are showing off their face painting. The rainy weather cancelled the bike ride, but the festivities at the American Legion went on as scheduled.

Sam Dauber was on the editorial board for the Crestwood High School publication Corners of Today. This Literary Arts Magazine showcases artwork, photography, original prose of short stories or poetry of students at Crestwood. Between 400 to 500 pieces were submitted for the 2009-2010 edition of which 100 were selected for publication. Corners of Today is designed, laid out and produced entirely by students. Sam is pictured with the other members of the staff and their advisor, Mr. William Reznak.

Want to know more about horses? Just ask Morgan Rinehimer, pictured with Kelly Kalada and their ride, Babe. Morgan is a member of the Tall in the Saddle 4-H Club.

Whose got those happy feet? Must be Keirsten Whitmire! Keirsten participated in the David Blight annual recital on June 27. She dances with the Tap and Jazz Combo Class.

V.I.S.I.O.N FUNDRAISER

As with many programs these days, V.I.S.I.O.N., the shelter program which services homeless men, has been notified that their 2010/2011 funding has been reduced. In order to offset this funding cut, they are participating in a promotion sponsored by Boscov's. For $5 you can purchase a 25% off shopping pass good on October 5. All checks should be made to VISION for the ticket sales. When you go shopping, please tear off the bottom portion and drop it in the Friends Helping Friends Ballot Box. The agency selling the most tickets will be awarded a prize.
